BUDGET FOR 1957-58

Demands for grants (On Account) Discussion (contd.)

(Sri B. Vaikunta Baliga rose).

MR. SPEAKER.—Before the Hon'ble Member begins, I want to say that as I told on Saturday I would like to prescribe a time-limit. The time-limit will be 15 minutes for each member.

*SRI B. VAIKUNTA BALIGA (Pane-Mangalore).—Mr. Speaker, Sir, this Assembly is meeting in a peculiar background at this juncture. A few of our friends on both sides may no longer be here when this Assembly meets again. Therefore, the sentiments expressed by the Leader of the Opposition and a few Hon'ble Members of the Opposition including the Hon'ble Member Sri Pattabhiraman and a few Hon'ble Members on this side also have to be reciprocated. I feel it my duty to say that we will be missing the help, guidance and co-operation of these Hon'ble Members to a very large extent.

Sri Imam, with all the wealth of knowledge and details which he possesses and the cordial manner in which he conducted the Opposition, has really endeared himself to one and all. We are missing him. But, we take solace under the circumstances that he will be able to discharge similar duties, duties which would be helpful to the advancement of the country. Sri Pattabhiraman—unfortunately neither of them are here—has also rendered excellent service and as an independent member was expressing impartial and unbiased views on subjects that came before the House. But, I am not able to understand how justifiable it was on the part of the Leader of the Opposition to have criticised the holding of elections. Suggestions have been made that the election has not been fair. I feel that it is a wrong view and there is no basis for that view. Election has been conducted in the most fair and impartial manner. May be, certain persons did not succeed ; but, may I say that the Minister in charge of the elections himself had to get defeated ? It will
